HUMAN FACTORS IN AI TO POWER COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

Join us for an interactive webinar on how competitive intelligence strengthens executive decision-making by expanding the data behind strategic and tactical assumptions. As AI accelerates data collection and analysis, learn where speed adds value — and where human judgment must step in.

Don't miss this opportunity to build a practical decision framework for high-stakes environments. Using the Decision Stress Test Canvas, identify judgment gaps, clarify accountability, and elevate competitive intelligence from analysis to measurable impact.
